

Coffee and Conversation

Purpose Statement

Coffee and Conversation is a parent group that meets informally approximately once a month for the purpose of deepening our understanding and appreciation of Christian classical education and building lasting friendships within the parent community of FCA.

To this end, we are mindful of details in order to point each in our group to beauty and create a peaceful environment that supports the underpinnings of the education our children are receiving at FCA.

We enjoy coffee and treats together; we read a predetermined passage about Christian classical education ahead of time, if possible, and together as a group. We begin each group meeting by reciting the Lord's Prayer together, and end each meeting by singing "The Doxology".

The easy structure of our meeting is intended to provoke thoughtful discussion and reflection. Our hope is that when the meeting ends, each person will continue to think on these things. The readings are intended to be a manageable length for busy parents while providing quality content for discussion.

A verse that captures our vision is Philippians 4:8:

Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.

We desire to dwell on such things!
